YENİŞEHİR ŞEMAKİ HOUSE MUSEUM
LONGING FOR İSTANBUL IN YENİŞEHİR

It is located at the centrum of the district of Yenisehir, 55 km from Bursa. It is estimated to be built by the Semaki family, who came to Anatolia from the town of Semah in Iran and settled in Yenisehir in the 18th century. The ground floor of the two-story house has a courtyard, kitchen and pantry on the right, and two winter rooms on the left side of the building.

Wooden stairs adjacent to the kitchen wall lead to the upper floor. The front facade facing the garden extend outwards with arched elements in the form of portico. There are two rooms, one large and the other small, on the right, opening to the hall with iwan. The hand-painted floral and panoramic motifs that adorn the house date from the 19th century.
